

I am annoyed with the idea that the regulatory agency in charge of protecting a public asset is instead helping corporations restrict my rights.

Please do what is fair, not what pays the most. This is a short-sighted solution that does NOT benefit the majority of Americans.